BIG BROTHER is published by Mr. Charles M. Hainsol. Price 10¢.

1. Each player receives one point for each player starting.
2. The runner-up receives two points if he has ten units or more at finish or game.
3. Each player still alive at finish, besides the winner and runner-up (above), receives one point.
4. Each player resigning or put out of the game loses one point.
5. Team games do not count in these ratings. No new postal game to count with less than seven players starting.
6. Total of all points is the standing of each player.

As soon as we get 2 more Postal Diplomacy Winners we will add them to those who have already asked to be in our BIG BROTHER Postal Diplomacy Winners Game! It should prove to be the World Series of the Postal Diplomacy World. There will be NO charge for the Big Brother Championship Game as it will be run as a free public service to the above mentioned entrants!

Other Postal Games are at hand! Keep reading the Big Brother Postal Diplomacy Game Ratings for these.

It is only fitting that Big Brother should run the Winners Game as it was Big Brother to which seven GameMasters decided to play in the very first (only?) completely "GameMasters Game of the Experts"! Also, as noted Big Brother started the first rating scale.
